

Based on current openings, salary data, and remote-work listings, MIS/Reporting roles are very real in India and can also become a pathway toward international-support and remote operations work.

What Is an MIS Executive Actually Doing?

Typical daily work:

- Excel report preparation
- Daily/weekly/monthly MIS reports
- Lead tracking reports
- Sales reports
- Revenue reports
- Dashboard updates
- Data cleaning
- Management reporting
- Google Sheets updates
- Power BI reporting (in some companies)

Example:

Task	Time
Data collection	1–2 hrs
Excel updates	2 hrs
Dashboard/report creation	2 hrs
Team coordination	1 hr
Email reporting	1 hr

After June–August learning:

Most Realistic Target Roles

1. MIS Executive
2. Reporting Executive
3. MIS Analyst
4. Operations Analyst
5. Business Reporting Analyst
6. Healthcare Operations Executive
7. Revenue Cycle Management Executive
8. Insurance Verification Executive
9. Claims Processing Executive
10. Junior Data Analyst

My Estimate for You

If you complete:

- Excel
- Power BI
- SQL
- 5–6 portfolio projects

over the next 2–3 months, then for remote/night-shift opportunities I would expect your realistic starting range to be:

Role	Expected Range
MIS Executive	₹25k–40k

Reporting Executive	₹30k–50k
Operations Analyst	₹30k–55k
Healthcare RCM	₹25k–45k
Insurance Verification	₹25k–40k
MIS Analyst	₹40k–60k
Reporting Analyst	₹45k–80k

Those numbers become much stronger when combined with your business experience and a portfolio showing Excel dashboards, reporting projects, Power BI reports, and SQL practice work.
